DETAILED ACTION

This action is responsive to Applicant's amendment filed on 9/29/03.

Applicant's arguments filed 9/29/03, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1-28 under 35 USC 102 and 103 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of Bergmann [USPAT 5,526,439].

Claim Objections

Note that claim 28 does not end with period.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 4-6, 8, 10, 11, 13-15, 17, 19, 20, 22-24, 26, 27, and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Bergmann.

Bergmann discloses an optical device comprising a first waveguide and a second waveguide [fig. 1] with plurality of electrodes, wherein the first and second ends of the first waveguides are on the same sides of the substrate as the input port and the output port of the second waveguide respectively.

In re claims 2 and 4, Lithium niobate and titanium diffused substrate is taught at column 3, lines 42-56.

In re claims 5, 14, and 23, the claimed method of forming the device is not germane to the issue of patentability of the device itself. Therefore this limitation has not given any patentable weight.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 3, 12, and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bergmann.

Bergmann discloses every aspect of claimed invention except for the substrate comprising lithium tantalate. It would have been obvious to the ordinary skilled person in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Bergmann's device to include the lithium tantalite substrate, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Response to Arguments

Applicant argues that claims 5, 14, and 23 are product by process claims.

The process limitations are given no patentable weight in device claim. The final structure of claimed invention is identical to the Bergmann's device.

This is a product-by-process limitation. "Even though product-by-process claims are limited by and defined by the process, determination of patentability is based on the product itself. The patentability of a product does not depend on its method of production.

If the product in the product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process". In re Thorpe, 777F. 2d 695,698 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir.1985). See also MPEP 2113. Moreover, an old or obvious product produced by a new method is not a patentable product, whether claim in "product by process" claim or not.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 7, 9, 16, 18, and 25 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art does not disclose or suggest a directional coupler for coupling an input optical fiber to an output optical fiber comprising all the specific elements with the specific combination including a first and second waveguides, which are formed between the first and second control electrodes as set forth in claims .

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Further references of interest are cited on Form PLO-892, which is attachment to this office action.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
